This is a detailed grayscale map of the Tokyo subway system. It shows a dense network of lines and stations across a large area of Tokyo. The map includes labels for various districts and areas, such as Chiyoda (中央区), Minami (港区), and Shimoizumi (臨海副都心). Major lines like the Yamanote Line, Keihin-Tohoku Line, and Chuo Line are clearly visible. Station names are written in both Japanese and English. The map also shows major roads, parks, and other landmarks. The map is oriented with North at the top.
